CONFERENCE & HOTEL REGISTRATION

Online registration for conferences and hotels is available at www.ctago.org.

Register for your hotel accommodations while you are in the conference registration site by clicking on the hotel link or calling the hotel directly. You will be asked for a credit card number to guarantee the hotel reservation.

All expenses for accommodations are the responsibility of the individual, the chapter, the school district, the Service Center Council or the UniServ unit.

UNIVERSITY CREDIT

All CTA conferences have been designed to meet educational requirements approved for continuing education university credit through the CSU Chico Department of Education. One unit of university credit is available for full attendance at each conference. A second unit of university credit is available to those attending the Friday pre-conference. The cost is $60 per unit. Sign up for the university credit during the online registration process or onsite. At the conclusion of the conference and upon verification of your full conference attendance, the unit(s) will be posted to your official academic transcript. Details are available online.

PROFESSIONAL GROWTH CREDIT

Professional growth credit will be available at no cost and credit will be awarded based on the number of sessions attended.

Expand Your Knowledge

2016-2017 CTA STATEWIDE CONFERENCES

The California Teachers Association hosts statewide conferences designed to provide knowledge and skills for members as they go about the work of the Organization. While each conference has its own agenda and its own focus, you'll find some similarities among the offerings: Key-note Speakers, Educational Workshops and Professional Development, Leadership Training and Extensive Networking Opportunities.

The Issues Conference, both Good Teaching Conferences, and the Equity and Human Rights Conference are offering a free retirement planning pre-conference. Both Good Teaching Conferences will also offer a pre-conference presented by the Instructional and Professional Development Department.

For full conference descriptions including Friday pre-conferences and to register, go to www.ctago.org.

INCENTIVE GRANTS AVAILABLE

The CTA Board of Directors will award various Incentive Grants to members of minority groups, small chapters and under-represented groups. Each grant includes payment of the conference fee and transportation costs only. Housing and all other costs will be the responsibility of the individual, the chapter, the school district, the Service Center Council or the UniServ unit. The grant application must be completed with the full knowledge and permission of the chapter president. Awarded grants are non-transferrable.

The incentive grant application deadline for the winter conferences are as follows:

- GLBT Issues Conference - October 2, 2016
- Issues Conference and the Good Teaching Conference-North - November 6, 2016
- Equity & Human Rights and the Good Teaching Conference-South - January 3, 2017

ISSUES CONFERENCE

January 20-22, 2017
Rio All-Suite Hotel, Las Vegas, NV

The Story of Us in the Brave New World continues to be CTA's driving focus to address the challenges facing educators today. CTA's Strategic Plan's Areas of Focus specifically address the means to build a stronger profession and protect public education. The 2017 Issues Conference sessions are aligned with the Strategic Plan and include sessions on current issues in education, professional development and member engagement.
